

Gerald Lang

Gerald passed away on June 29, 2024.

He began his career with JC Penney in 1956 in the drapery department. He worked his way up through management in the Los Angeles Area, and managed the Burbank Store. From there he was transferred to the Seattle district Office, then a district manager based in Spokane for the rural Washington, Idaho, and Montana area. He was transferred to Sacramento where he managed the Citrus Heights store. His final position was the Galleria store in Glendale, California. During this time, he won many awards. He retired in 1990, and he and Elizabeth, his wife, moved to Sun City West, Arizona. He looked forward to the JC Penney Golf tournament every year. He is survived by his daughter, Lucia Leavitt, Son in Law Jeff Leavitt, Grandsons Joseph Lang and Daniel Leavitt.
